

Managing your facilities

Your organization has many important resources that it needs to operate.

Do you know where they are? Who is using them? How effectively they are used?

TeamAgenda lets you track, reserve, and measure the utilization of all the shared facilities that are important to your organization, like:

- Conference rooms
- Classrooms
- Offices
- Cars
- Computer equipment
- Projectors

- Medical equipment or
- Parks, arenas, gymnasiums, tennis courts, etc
- any other scarce or expensive resource...

If you want to share and manage something, TeamAgenda can do it for you easily.

Make sure you get the most out of your assets.
